LIC: SAVED TO SERVE!

Sermon Summary for 17th June, 2018

“JESUS TEACHES ON FAITH AND FORGIVENESS”

Numbers 12: 1 - 15; Mark 11: 20 - 26 (Mr. Kofi Duodu Asomaning)

The passage can be divided into 3 parts.

1. Mark 11: 20 – 21 The Fig tree was withered from the roots: Jesus curses this tree with roots and leaves which had no fruit. This was a reversal of the ratification of the Levitical order in which Aaron's rod which had no root or soil sprouted, budded and bore almonds (Numbers 17). It marked the expiration of a Levitical order and the beginning of a new order. (See Heb. 7: 18 -26)

POINT 1. JESUS ENDS THE OLD LEVITICAL ORDER – salvation by works (leaves)

2. Mark 11: 22 – 24 Within the same 24 hour period that Aaron's staff budded, the cursed tree is withered from the roots. Jesus' response to Peter's amazement is: “Have faith in God,” Jesus answered! Jesus points the new way to God and the establishment of the new priesthood by FAITH.

Galatians 3: 16 tells us that Jesus takes up the curse of the Law by being hung on a tree so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit

Jesus illustrates the point further by saying that by faith anyone can say to a mountain to be throw itself into sea it will be done if the person does not doubt. Jesus seems to be saying that by faith in Christ, anyone can speak to any mountain of sin to cast into the sea and the person would be “forgiven” if they do not doubt. In Micah 7, the scriptures speak of Israel's fruitlessness and prophesy of God's salvation by casting Israel's sin into the depths of the sea.

POINT 2. JESUS POINTS TO THE NEW WAY OF RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD – salvation by faith

3. Mark 11: 25 – 26 The word doubt in the original language is also translated “oppose or contend” and this gives a very import meaning to what Christ is saying; when you come to God in prayer for your “mountain of sin” to be cast away into the sea, don't “oppose” it by refusing to forgive others. Differently put; If we do not forgive, we contend with our prayers for God's forgiveness.

POINT 3. JESUS POINTS TO THE NEW WAY OF RELATIONSHIP WITH MAN – forgiveness as Christ's disciple

3 QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION

1. Are you still living by trying to please God on your own? No work is good enough.

2. Have you put your faith in Jesus to move your mountain of sin? No sin is too big.

3. Is there anyone you need to forgive? God expects you to do so.

This Week's Prayer Topics

✠ Pray for a great spiritual awakening in the Church of God worldwide and in LIC; that the way will be cleared for the move of God is His Church (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 3:19-20)

✠ Pray against attacks on the Church and on the lives of individual members as a whole. Pray against every demonic agenda against all segments in LIC; cancel untimely death, strange sicknesses, attacks in dreams etc. (Matthew 16:18; 1 John 3:8; Isaiah 54:17)

✠ Pray for the spirit of responsible citizenship as a nation; that we would not shirk our responsibilities whilst holding our government accountable in order to leave behind a better world for generations yet unborn (Romans 13:1-7)

REFLECTION: In the world but not of the world

Hell is real; Heaven is also real. However, it is not a choice between heaven and hell but a choice between heaven and this world because even a fool will exchange hell for heaven. Jesus's mission was to point us to God and eternal life and not to point us away from eternal destruction. His obedience to God's plan was so repulsive to the world that it took His life. Our responsibility is to live as Jesus did – in non-conformance to this world.
